Carols for Choirs Book (Orange book) URGENT REQUEST!

Fiona needs to return to the library, the copies we borrowed over Christmas. Currently she is two short. Please contact Fiona as soon as possible (01935 477867) if you know where the missing ones might be.

Please pray

Pray for James Dudley-Smith and Edward Armitstead attending General Synod in London from Monday 6th - Thursday 9th February.

Supporting our Mission Partners.

The Beyond Yeovil Group (BYG) are holding a social on Friday 24th February in St John's Schoolrooms at 7.00pm. There will be the chance to learn more about Tanzania and the work of CMS and our own link with Ruth Hulser, working for CMS in Tabora, Tanzania. This will be followed by a supper, time to view displays and relevant information and time just to enjoy one another's company. Tickets are on sale from Beth Farrington at St Andrews and from the office at St John's.

Transport Anyone wishing to attend the BYG social who has problems with transport please telephone Mike and Flic Streatfeild on 01749 813275.

Reminder! Saturday March 3rd 10am until 1pm. in the church. Reminder for all volunteers who help with the children's work in St Johns and St Andrews, that Margaret Hamilton and Simon Corner will be running safeguarding (previously known as child protection) training. It is a number of years since we last ran this training and will be essential for anyone who has not previously done the training and a refresher for those who came last time. Anyone working with vulnerable adults are also invited as safeguarding includes children and vulnerable adults now.

Volunteer to make coffee needed for the safeguarding training in the church on March 3rd. Please contact Margaret Hamilton if you are able to help. Tel. 01935-412570.
